LEWIS WILSON FOX

CENTREVILLE — On April 27 at Kingston General Hospital, following surgery, Lewis Wilson Fox died suddenly. The youngest son of the late George Washington Fox and his wife, the former Martha Lewis, he was born and lived his entire life on the family homestead in Camden Township, near Roblin.

In addition to operating his farm, he was for 20 years, secretary-treasurer and salesman for Forest Mills Cheese Co. His chief interest in life was centred in his church. For a number of years he attended Forest Mills United Church, where he was Bible class teacher and an elder. Later, and until the time of his passing, he was a faithful member of Evangel Temple in Napanee, and served on the building committee, when that church was erected.

He was twice married. His first wife, the former Cora Richmond, died several years ago. To that union was born two daughters, the late Mrs. Garnet Hughes (Irene) and Mrs. Alex Baird (Beulah) of Edmonton, Alta. and a son who died in infancy.

He is survived by his wife, the former, Marian McConnell and a granddaughter, Joyce Baird, as well as a brother, B. Franklin Fox of Boise, Idaho. Rev. Lorne F. Fox, who is well-known locally, is a nephew.

The funeral was conducted April 30 in Evangel Temple by his pastor, Rev. E. Ripley, assisted by Rev. Laurie Price of Belleville. The Scripture text used was chosen by himself and was Hebrews 2:3, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation."

Rev. Hope Smith of Belleville sang "Meet Me There." Interment was in Riverview Cemetery.

1956

Pall-bearers were Graham Vansickle, Ronald Miller, Reuben Zatterburg, Herkimer Lasher, George Brooks and John Benn.

Flower bearers were his five nieces, Mrs. Paul Breault, Mrs. Herb Lochhead, Mrs. Ronald Hawley, Miss Shirley McConnell and Miss Hazel McConnell.

and she carried a cascade of stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

Miss Shirley Bartlett was maid of honor, wearing a princess style gown of coral crystal satin, the skirt caught up with bows of the same material. Miss Patricia Ubell was her sister's bridesmaid, wearing a princess gown of turquoise shot taffeta.
Each attendant wore a matching hat-like headdress with fresh spring flowers forming the crown.

Mr. Morley Trask was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Wilfred Trask, brother of the groom, and Mr.
William Trask, cousin of the groom, all of Alma.

Mrs. C. Leach played the wedding music, and Mr. John Carnegie was soloist; the bride and groom knelt on a white cushion while he sang "Wedding Prayer".

A reception was held in St.

Fredrick Fox given Lot 44 Con/limbawing in 1819 sold half to a Lempy & half to a Redner.

Jean Finney Fox & husband James Fox died in 1819 which the Fox & Fox sold in 1819 to a Portiche. sold to James Fox who still lived there 1843.

Margaret Fox & husband Angus McDonald died in 1819 & sold to a Fox & Fox but I cannot find any record.

Like wise cannot find record of lot that Susannah Fox Young was granted in 1748 as you suggest anyway to find out the Younger.
